MEMBERSHIP

The purpose of the Golf Collectors Society is to provide a congenial and convenient vehicle for members to share information, get better acquainted, trade among themselves, and to foster the study and publication of works which contribute to the preservation of the great history and traditions of the game of golf. The GCS is a non-profit corporation governed by a Board of Directors elected according to GCS Bylaws.

Annual dues are by calendar year. Payment must be in U.S. funds by a check drawn on a U.S. bank or by International Money Order. Cash is accepted. You can also pay using PayPal. Go to www.paypal.com and send your membership dues to kbednarski@golfcollectors.com.

GCS Members receive our quarterly publication, The Bulletin; and the Annual Membership Directory, listing current members, contact information and collecting interests. Display advertising is available in The Bulletin, the Membership Directory, and on the website. An Events page on the website offers a calendar of upcoming trade shows and hickory tournaments.

The GCS Board of Directors is comprised of five officers; ten regional directors, representing nine U.S. regions, and one international region; and up to six "Directors at Large". GCS Regional Directors host regional meetings, trade shows and hickory tournaments. A GCS Annual Meeting & Trade Show is held each year for the membership at large.
